

We have seen few examples where We saw that we can assume recurrence calls works and based on that we can understand/solve complete recurrence algorithm.

This technique is same as drawing a recurrence tree but only for first level. Then we assume for all other levels it is working and we combine the results from all subproblems.